These masters are intended for reproduction only by the organization that purchased them. The curriculum may not be shared with other centers or posted on the Internet.

Suitable For: All clients.

Time Frame: Any time within the pregnancy.

Lesson Objective: To present to a woman who is abortion-vulnerable or abortion-minded all of her options and information regarding her baby and abortion.

Instructions: Show the DVD, When You Have To Decide. Choose which section(s) to show your client based on your discussions. They are made to be independent and short. There is no DVD worksheet with this lesson. This DVD is designed to help create discussion between you and your client in order for you to help guide her in making healthy decisions for her baby and herself.

Discussion Questions: Do not give this page to your client. Use it as a guide to help talk about the subject of this lesson and to help you build a closer relationship with your client.

Homework: Give your client a copy of the reflection sheet provided.

Supplies: DVD: When You Have To Decide

Length of Video: Varies from 3 - 6 minutes based on sections chosen

Note: You do not need to remove the master sheets from the protective plastic to copy. You can copy right through the plastic. Start with the last page first and move forward so your copies will come out in order.

This lesson informs your client about her options, her baby, and abortion procedures.
